GERALT OF RIVIA

Feared by monsters and mistrusted by men, Geralt of Rivia is among the most renowned witchers on the Continent. His mutations grant him heightened senses, unnatural reflexes, and the deadly skills needed to survive life on the Path. Underneath the sarcastic – and at times even cynical – exterior is a highly principled monster hunter, albeit one with a stubborn streak and an odd habit of getting caught up in events that change the course of history.

GERALT'S SWORDS

Every witcher carries two swords — a steel blade for fighting humans and non-magical creatures, and a silver one reserved for monsters, spirits, and other supernatural horrors. Razor-sharp, perfectly balanced, and inscribed with magical runes, Geralt's swords have accompanied the White Wolf through years on the Path and faced countless enemies, from bandits and mercenaries to monsters and ancient spirits.
